Nicholas I Pope.

858-867

106th Pope St Nicholas I Rome. A great and energetic Pope in troubled times. He upheld the sacredness of marriage against Count Baldwin of Flanders and King LOTAR II, and enforced ecclesiastical discipline and law everywhere. Beginning of the GREEK SCISM. LOTAR had dismissed his lawful wife THREAT BERGA and attempted to marry WALDOROA. Although besieged by an imperial army, Nicholas resisted until his death. Under his successor Adrian, the king came to Rome and swore a false oath on the Blessed Sacrament, that he had returned to his duty and was admitted to Holy Communion. But the sacrifice was followed by a terrible punishment. The king and all who had joined in his crime, died of a mysterious disease, while returning home.
